

English Romantic Modernism at the Linton Antique Society

Eric Ravilious (1903 – 1942) Tea at Furlongs, 1939.

On 12 January 2017 at 8.00pm, author and art historian Suzanne Fagence Cooper looks at the work of two major 20th century British artists – John Piper, particularly noted for his dramatic pictures of historic buildings, and Eric Ravilious, a brilliant watercolourist, print-maker and designer – and its potent influence on a range of young contemporary artists, some of whom are Yorkshire-based.

Entrance to this talk at Linton Memorial Hall is £5.00 but is free to Society members. To join, contact Mrs Barbara Hepburn on 01937 582243 or download the form on the Society's website www.lintonantiquesociety.org.uk – or you can join on the night.

Next talk: 9 February 2017, 8.00pm: A Muddy History of Britain (A Local View) with Gillian Hovell.
